Motion to quash regarding Gregory Jordan 284 is denied. The parties are directed to provide the Court with position papers regarding the issue of whether the proffered testimony of Jordan is protected by the attorney client privilege by 10/8/2007. Any response to the position papers shall be filed by 10/11/2007. The Court has reviewed the transcript of the deposition of Elizabeth Sharp and finds that her testimony is critical to the issue of whether the corporate veil can be pierced in this case and therefore the motion to quash the subpoena served on Elizabeth Sharp 286 is denied. Because Sharp will be called as a witness to a critical dispute in the case, her representation of her clients places her in direct conflict with her potential testimony; therefore, Sharp is directed to obtain alternate counsel for her clients for the bench trial scheduled to begin 10/15/2007.
